NOT CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

Prof. H. M. DeLong Referred to as One Who Advanced Schools of the Borough to High Standard; Company E. Raising Fund for Camp Use.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, June 30.—In order to clear some statements that have appeared over town, the board of education, through its secretary, Howard M. Stoner, has sent the following letter to H. H. DeLong who will not come back to the local schools as principal another year:

To whom it may concern:

The best measurement that can be taken of any school man's work is reflected directly in the obtained results. During the four years of H. H. DeLong's work in our district as supervising principal our schools have attained to higher standards of efficiency. Through changes in methods and through more systematized efforts more satisfactory advances have been made. In theory and practice Mr. DeLong is always found abreast of what is newest and best for the school system. His administration is a positive force in directing the work and by analysis of school problems forms an excellent basis for deliberate action. Correct discipline will be obtained under Mr. DeLong's supervision."

CAPSTAN GLASS SIGNED TO PLAY COKERS ON SATURDAY

South Connellsburg Tossers Believe They Can Beat Logans.

HARD GAME IN SIGHT

The Capstan Glass team draws the assignment to mingle with the Connellsburg Independents here on Saturday. The South Connellsburg aggregation will undoubtedly put out a winning bunch of losers to gain the little honor of this fair community. Not alone are they confident of victory, but they are ready and willing to back their champions with ready cash.

Business Manager Sheering assures the Independents' management that the neutral population of the South Enders will turn out at Fayette Field to witness the fracas. The citizens of the borough think they have an aggregation of champions in the glass workers. Capstan has been after the local team ever since the opening of the season, but the Independents thought the visitors would not be strong enough. With the assurance that they will have a strong line-up Connellsburg consented to the game. Undoubtedly Capstan will play their "heads off" to defeat the Independents. In other words the contest will unquestionably turn out to be a hard fought battle in view of the fact that it has taken the Independents so long to figure the glass workers as a worth foe.

Business Manager "Muggsy" Bree of the Uniontown Collegians was a visitor at the Independents' headquarters last evening and the managers have at last reached an agreement whereby the two teams will "toss" together at Fayette Field on July 9.

YOECH VALLEY MAKES SLIGHT SCHEDULE CHANGE
The Yough Valley Independent baseball team will make a few changes in its games for Sunday and Monday instead of having Trotter Field open all day. West Newton is to be the attraction. One contest will be in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

On Saturday Colonial No. 1 will play at Dickerson Run.

News of the heavyweight championship fight will be announced at the ball park.

Dawson and North Dawson played an exciting game on the latter's grounds Tuesday, the Hill boys coming out ahead. The contest went for 11 innings, the final count being 19-18.

The Capstan Glass baseball team meets the Scotdale independent baseball team at the South Connellsburg grounds this afternoon. The game is scheduled for 4:30. Capstan is anxious to arrange games with the leading teams of the region. Outfits desiring dates call Sauder at the Atlas hotel, South Connellsburg.

The Connellsburg independent management has arranged to have light news announced at the baseball park on Saturday. Those desiring to see the ball game will not miss the important events of the big scrap by going to Fayette Field.

In a game at Bitner on Tuesday the Lehighring No. 3 baseball team was whitewashed by the home outfit. The score was 7-0. McNauly pitched a shut-out while his teammates hit 10 home runs. Bitner scored three runs in the second and four in the fourth.

North Side playgrounds team went into the lead yesterday in the city league when the West Side was defeated at Fayette Field in a moring game, 11-3.

The Shanty Cornily nine was defeated by Dull's Racers in a twilit game last evening. The score was 5-6.

The game at Fayette Field yesterday between the Pittsburgh Steel club of Monaca, and the Connellsburg Pirates ended in a dispute over the umpire's ruling. The score was tied at 5-5.

The Pittsburgh Pirates "bumped off" the Cubs yesterday, 3-1. The New York Giants lost at the same time to Boston, 3-2.

RIGLER SAYS EMSLIE IS RULE BOOK WIZARD

Bob Rigler, dean of the National League umpires, knows the rule book better than the referees who made it, according to Cy Rigler. He says:

"Bob knows a great deal about the rules as all the rest of the National League umpires put together. It is a mystery to me that he always seems to last winter when they were making changes. After the commission had made the changes, Rigler asked him for his opinion. He told him that two of the new rules were bad and the dead ball rule and the one which requires the umpire to judge whether a home run is fair or foul when it passes out the gate. These are the only changes that have been done so far."

Oscar Stanga is working with Nick Diomirich, the young northeast of the Los Angeles area, and says he will have Negroes facing big show at the end of the year.

The Pirates were the first National league club to get 300 hits this season.

It's easy to be a successful pitcher if you go about it right, says Pel Pritt.

The Banks and Pirates have better luck as tourists than as home-town folks.

One bright and abiding light on the Fort Worth pitching staff this season is Augustus (Lefty) Johnus.

Charley Grinnan, star first baseman of the Pittsburgh club, is leading the National league in three-base hits.

England may have a little the advantage in golf, but a great baseball competition would tell a different story.

Jack Wilkinson, veteran player, manager and sportsman, has been added to the umpire staff of the Western association.

The Shanty Cornily nine was defeated by Dull's Racers in a twilit game last evening. The score was 5-6.

TICKETS FOR JULY 4 BOUTS PUT ON SALE

The glamour of the world's championship contest between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier must bring such a stellar fighter as Eddie Carter, the fast negro fighter of Pittsburgh in his old-time form, Carter will put up the battle of his career, as Billy has been promised a return match with Johnny Donnelly at the first show to be held in Uniontown this fall.

Police, the best little man ever developed here in a decade, will show his wares for the first time before Frank Tarr's Tough Valley hall tomorrow. All the players of Tarr's team know the little battle personally but very few of them have ever seen him perform in the ring. They intend to turn out en masse to see him in his contest with Miller. The seats for the bout are on sale at the West Penn Billiard parlor in this city and at the Hill House, Scottsdale, where they are reported to be selling at a brisk clip.

127 Fatalities

In Mines of U. S. in Month of March

According to reports received by the United States Bureau of Mines from the various state mine inspectors, 127 men were killed during March, 1921, in and about the coal mines of the United States, as compared with 131 killed in March, 1920. Thus the 1921 figures show a decrease of 64 fatalities, or about 30 per cent, from the record of the corresponding month of last year. For the same months, the output of coal fell from $4,683,000 to $3,942,000 tons, a decrease of 17,347,000 tons, or 32 per cent, attributable almost entirely to lack of demand.

March of last year, 3,31 fatal cases were reported for each million tons of coal produced. For March, 1921, the corresponding fatality rate was 3.40 per million tons mined.

On March 9, 1921, five men were killed by a gas explosion, due to ignition at the Ruth mine No. 4, at Seck, Pa.

The largest number of fatalities occurring in any state was in Pennsylvania, where there were 47 fatal accidents. In the anthracite field, 18 died, eight in the bituminous districts. There were 17 fatalities in West Virginia, 16 in Illinois, 10 in Ohio, nine in Alabama and seven in Kentucky.

The average number of fatalities during March of each year from 1913 to 1920 has been 209. The production of coal has averaged 43,241,000 tons, showing a fatality rate of 3.12 per million tons, as representative of the month of March for the past eight years.

COPYRIGHT BY SIR GILBERT PARKER

"Now that your day of release is over, and you are to be again a free man, have you decided about your future? Is it to be in Ireland? No, I think not. Ireland is no place for a sane and level man to fight his fight for honor, fame and name. I hear that things are worse there in every way than they have been in our lifetime."

"After what has happened in any case, it is not a field that offers you a chance. Listen to me. Ireland and England are not the only places in the world. My uncle came here to Virginia a poor man. He is now immensely rich. He had little to begin with, but he was young like you—indeed, little older than you—when he first came. He invested wisely, worked hard, and his wealth grew fast. No man needs a fortune to start the business or life in this country. He can get plenty of land for almost nothing; he can get credit for planting and furnishing his land, and, if he has friends, his credit is sure."

"All America is ready for the likes of you. Think it over, and meanwhile please know there has been placed with the firm in Dublin money enough to bring you here with comfort. You must not refuse it. Take it as a loan, for I know you will not take it as a gift."

"I do not know the story of the killing, even as it was told in court. Well, some one killed the man, but not you, and the truth will come out in time. If one should come to me out of the courts of heaven and say that there it was declared you were a rogue, I should say heaven was no place for me. No, of one thing I am sure—you never killed an undefended man. Wayward, wanton, reckless, dissipated you may have been, but you were never depraved—never!"

"When you are free, lift up your shoulders to all the threats of time, then go straight to the old firm where the money is, draw it, take ship and come here. If you let me know you are coming, I'll be there to meet you when you step ashore, to give you a firm hand-clasp, to tell you that in this land there is a good place for you. If you will win it."

"I beg you take ship for the Virginia coast. Enter upon the new life here with faith and courage. Have no fear. Heaven that has thus far helped you will abide you to the end."

"I write without my mother's permission, but my uncle knows, and though he does not approve, he does not condemn."

"P. S.—I wonder where you will read this letter. I hope it will find you before your release. Please remember that she who writes it summons you from the darkness where you are to light and freedom here."

Slowly Dyck folded up the letter, when he had read it, and put it in his pocket. Then he turned with pale face and gaunt look to Michael Clones.

"Michael," said he, "that letter is from a lady. It comes from her new home in Virginia."

"Michael nodded.

"Aye, aye, sir. I understand you," he said. "Then she doesn't know the truth about her father?"

Dyck sighed heavily.

"No, Michael, she doesn't know the truth."

"I don't care if it would make any difference to her if she did know." "I should make all the difference to Michael," she says she wishes him to the big firm in Dublin.

There's work to do. So let's make for a king's ship, and have done with misery and poverty."

"Then you waved a hand to the man in command of the recruit's gang, and presently stepped up to him and his friends.

"Sir," I said to you, "I'm not going to be pressed into the navy."

"There's no pressin', Michael," you answered. "We'll be quota men. We'll do it for cash—for forty pounds each, and no other. You let them have you as you are. But if you don't want to come," you added, "it's all the same to me."

"Faith, I knew that was only talk, I knew you wanted me. Also I knew the king's navy needed me, for men are hard to get. So, when they'd paid us the cash—forty pounds apiece—I stepped in behind you, and here we are—here we are! Forty pounds apiece—equal to three years' wages of an ordinary recruit of the army. It isn't bad, but we're here for three years, and not escape from it. Yes, here we are."
